You may designate your spouse or someone other than your spouse as beneficiary. However a spouse has legislated rights under Manitoba Pension Legislation to the pre-retirement death benefit under the Plan unless waived in accordance with legislation or at the time of death is living separate and apart due to relationship breakdown. Caution: Please be aware that the designation of the beneficiary will not be revoked or changed automatically by any future marriage or divorce. Should you wish to change your beneficiary in the event of a future marriage or divorce you will have to do so by means of a new designation.

Unless the law requires otherwise, the entitlement of any beneficiary who predeceases your will revert to your surviving beneficiaries in equal shares, or if there is no surviving beneficiary, the entitlement will revert to your estate. If you do not appoint a beneficiary, your beneficiary by default will be your estate.

Being a Member of the Plan, I hereby revoke any designation of beneficiary heretofore made by me and I hereby appoint the following person(s) as revocable beneficiary(ies) of any benefits payable upon my death under the Pension Plan.
